QUESTURA

A medieval-style town square with cobblestone streets and timber-framed buildings. The scene is set in a large, open square paved with irregular cobblestones. In the background, there are several large, multi-story buildings. The most prominent ones are timber-framed, with dark wooden beams and light-colored walls. To the left, there is a stone building with arched windows and a small stained-glass window. The sky is overcast with soft, grey clouds. The overall atmosphere is that of a quiet, historical town square.
